

Dear Walter,

I wanted to take and time and let you know that I am very honored and proud to have been a part of this campaign and to have gotten to know you and Lois and the rest of your family. You are my hero, someone I look up to just like thousands of others.

You ran an excellent campaign. Everywhere I go people ask me how you are doing. You made people think about democracy; you made people take part because for once we didn't have to vote for lesser of the two evils but instead vote for someone we really believed in.

Thanks for all the weekendall memories, all the laughs, jokes, speeches, old Rabbi jokes and of course the "So long" tales.
