'Impact of Vietnam War'

UCSB religion class to hear John Wheeler

John Wheeler, secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, will speak to the UCSB Religion Class on "The Impact of the Vietnam War," Tuesday at 11 a.m. in Campbell Hall.

As chairman of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, Wheeler was instrumental in conceiving of the War Memorial on the National Mall, and introduced President Reagan at the national dedication of the memorial on Veterans Day, 1984.

A Vietnam veteran, Wheeler graduated from West Point in 1966 and from the Law School at Yale University. He is author of "Touched With Fire: The Future of the Vietnam Generation," and of op/ed articles that have appeared in The New York Times, The Washington Post and USA Today. He is founder of the monthly report, "The Century Generation," which focuses on how the events of the Vietnam era continue to shape the nation.

Wheeler serves as special counsel to the President's Commission on World Hunger and is director of the President's Vietnam Veterans Leadership Program.

Walter H. Capps, UCSB professor of religious studies, teaches the class. Wheeler's presentation is open to the public, though seating is limited.

Serra Club's dinner to feature coach

CAMARILLO — UCLA football coach Terry Donahue, and actor James Patrick Kinney, who has received critical acclaim for his portrayal of Father Junipero Serra, will be featured at the Serra Club of San Buenaventura's annual seminary appreciation dinner Feb. 16. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. at the St. John's College refectory on the seminary grounds in Camarillo. The program is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Each year the Serra Club of San Buenaventura honors the faculty, staff, and seminarians at St. John's Seminary in appreciation of 45 years of service to the Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles, which includes Ventura and Santa Barbara Counties. Bishop Donald W. Montrose, auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and vicar for Ventura County, and Monsignor Gary Bauler, archdiocesan director of vocations, will be honored Donahue, whose UCLA team beat the University of Miami in an upset victory at the Fiesta Bowl on New Year's Day.

Kinney, who appears in Franciscan robes and wears wooden sandals and a large crucifix in his portrayal of Father Serra, will present an hour-long, one-man show depicting the "Sacred Expedition of 1769-70". Kinney's presentation describes Father Serra's remarkable adventures and his struggles against often impossible odds in an effort to found the first California missions in San Diego and Monterey. The actor recreates the great man who first settled California — Portola, De Galvez, De Anza, Ortega, Pages — as seen through the eyes of Father Serra.

The program is timely as the Catholic Church marks the bicentennial of the Spanish-born missionary who built nine California missions and laid the groundwork for 12 others before he died in 1784.
