

DIALOGUE SESSION ON
THE VIETNAM WAR AND AMERICAN RELIGIOUS SENSIBILITY*
Friday, January 27, 1978 - 11 a.m.

Discussion Leader:

Walter H. Capps, Director of the Institute of Religious Studies, and Professor of Religious Studies, University of California at Santa Barbara;
Center Associate.

Outside Participants:

Edward Linenthal, graduate student, Department of Religious Studies, UCSB.
Rev. Paul Nussle, Pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Santa Barbara.

Center Participants:

Maurice Mitchell
Harry S. Asnmore
Donald R. Cressey
William Gorman
Otis L. Graham, Jr.
Bernard Haber
Donald McDonald
Joseph J. Schwab
Rexford G. Tugwell

Center Board Members:

Eulah Laucks

Observer:

Deborah Sills, Administrative Assistant, Institute of Religious Studies, UCSB;
Greg Shaw, graduate student, UCSB.

*Paper

Walt -

I have to catch a plane. Apologies for not participating in the humanities session. But I have some comments on that which I will give you next week when I get back.

I hope that, on balance, we are helping you. I'm trying!

Walt